Partners: the Movie 2 (相棒II)

“CSI meets Colombo”

Having really enjoyed the first Partners movie, I was slightly skeptical about this sequel, but the minute the movie began and Yutaka Mizutani the older partner appeared with his antics, I settled in to enjoy the movie. The storyline was strong with an intriguing suspense that kept me guessing till the very end. Intelligent plot with a good cast supported the combination of action and comedy. A great way to spend two hours on a flight.

“Exciting”

This is a very good detective story with many neatly worked-out plots. I found the hostage incident very exciting. I keep thinking what the ending will be when the truth was gradually revealed and more shocking plots happened. Much to my surprise it had a twist ending. I look forward to seeing the next exciting Partners story.

I started to like Japanese detective stories again since the Galileo drama came on TV and I would not be shy to admit that I used to watch “G-MEN 75” series back in the 70’s. One puzzle being solved leads to another and I like especially “Partners 2” for its emphasis on the human nature of the criminal, who is in fact victimized by others. This is my first “Partners” experience and I will definitely watch the prequel to find out more about the characters.
