SWERVE

Easy Riders meets Something Wild

A road trip movie with a twist. Yes, all the predictable "if something can go wrong it will" moments on a road trip, but the ending is unexpected and the characters are all strong individuals. A guy comes across a suitcase of money, tries to return it and gets into all kinds of trouble.... Does it pay to be good and honest? Watch this movie... it'll surprise you.

A suitcase of money leads to an exciting crime and thriller. A young guy resists temptation of this suitcase of money and returns it to the police station but a series of strange events occur to him. You may want to know what actually happened. The end of the story is definitely a surprise for you.

Sometimes doing the right thing can get you in a lot of trouble. Colin is headed to a job interview, which he has to travel across the country for when he witnesses an accident in the middle of nowhere, he stops to help. What he finds starts him on a path of trouble he was not ready for. Sometimes being the "good guy" isn't necessarily all that good.

It started with a car crash. In one vehicle there was a suitcase full on cash, and there was a confused woman walking out of the other vehicle. The money leads to a high octane chase among the characters. And after a few rounds of changing hands, the suitcase ends with a surprise. I enjoy the final chase scene as the clock ticks.

A box of cash from a drug dealer. A story about "Colin". A cross-country man on the way to an interview, meet a series of incidents which is not normal at all.
