

Reviews

My Spectacular Theatre (盲人電影院)

Esther

It is a simple but meaningful comedy and love story. The cinema for the blind is not only a place for entertainment. It also caters the need for the blind. The old man's devotion to run this cinema is appreciated. The young guy who makes a decision to change his life by the influence of people he met in this cinema.

Eric

This is a heart warming story about a young graduate influence by Gao who runs a theatre to serve the blinds. After he notice Gao has amnesia, he realize the importance of serving the others are more important than chasing his career goal. At the end, he choose to succeed Gao's will!

My Spectacular Theatre

Director: Lu Yang / Cast: Zhou Yiwei, Jin Shijie, Liu Yuanyuan, Wang Jinsong, Aliza (Re Yizha) / Language: Mandarin / Subtitle: Eng, Eng and Trad. Chinese / Runtime: 119 min / Rating: IIA (Hong Kong), PG-13 (MPAA)

Territories: Worldwide ex-China / Theatrical Release: n/a / Inflight Release: Feb 2012

Festivals and Awards:

- Nominated for 2011 Golden Rooster Awards: Best Feature (Small & Medium Budget), Best Directorial Debut, Best Supporting Actor
- Audience Award, Busan International Film Festival 2010
- Best Feature, Kazan International Muslim Film Festival 2011, Russia
- Reelabilities: Disabilities Film Festival 2011, New York / Atlanta
- Beijing International Film Festival 2011
- Chinese Film Panorama 2011, Hong Kong